

The Cornell Bulletin

"GRANAM

MAN-IN-CHIEF

R. WOLCOTT, BUSINESS MANAGER.

A. HESS.

M. ALBERTSON.

ASSOCIATE EDITORS.

E. REIGANT.

E. STUTTEBEAM.

A. QUINLAN.

E. HIEBER.

VOL. II NO. III

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR. OCTOBER 14, 1916.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Nominations for president of all the outside houses will be held in Sage, Risley and Dom Econ. to-day 12-2. A list of the eligible Seniors will be posted at these places.

Nominations for Sophomore member of House Committee will be held in Sage today 12 to tw.

A. y Luce was elected chairman for Pay Day and Phyllis Rudd chairman for making a calander of coming events at the executive committee meeting last night.

The Red and White teams need the support of every girl at Cornell. Wear a Red Button and help build our cheering section. Over eighty girls are wearing them, can't you make it a hundred?

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

There seems to be some misunderstanding about signing up for sports. You may sign up for tennis and two other sports, (one spring sport and one fall sport).

The Athletic Council will be entertained at a luncheon today by doctor Matzke at the University Club and will hold a meeting directly afterward.

CLASSES.

Junior Class Meeting-Wednesday 7:30. p. m. in Sage-Everybody is urged to be present.

Sophomores! Remember we are going to need songs and cheers pretty soon so put on your thinking caps and leave them on even if it does make your hair come out.

Y. W. C. A.

FRESHMEN!!!

Come to the Y. W. C. A. Rooms in Barns Hall tomorrow. Someone will take you to church or Sunday School. Classes for University students are at the Presbyterian, Congregational, Methodist, Baptist and Episcopal Churches.

EVERYBODY!!!

Contributions of short stories, poems, essays are wanted. Now for the first issue of the Review. Place all contributions in Review Office in Sage. Subscriptions may also be left there. Sign up now before the first issue comes out.

FRYGFILGAE

THE FRIGGA-FYLGAE Seniors will entertain all the entering girls of the College of Agriculture at a reception in the apartment of the Dom Econ. Bldg. on Saturday, afternoon Oct. 14 at 4 o'clock.

NOTICE!!!

The Cornell Bulletin is a paper published by the girls containing everything that the girls want to know. This week the paper has been given to everyone. Starting with next Monday, it will be sent to subscribers only. The Bulletin exists for you,!! It is a medium between you and the other girls-- the University!! --The more money the paper has, the better it will prosper so subscribe and give us your support. The rates are one dollar if paid before Nov. 15 th.